

Mobile App - Money

Money is a fictional project created for a course on Udemy.

The application is designed to manage your finances. Two-step verification is required when creating an account. The app allows you to view your expenses and income and also do money transfers to other users.

COLORS

